After the lockdown was enforced promulgation of lockdown, the police have not only ensured that the people shall not come out of their houses and violate the provisions of lockdown but the supply of essential services including ration/ medicines was also taken care of. During such trying times, Delhi Police took several initiatives and the personnel of Delhi Police emerged as heroes to many people by helping them in various ways. The efforts of our personnel were widely appreciated in print as well as electronic media. Some of such success stories are as under:-

Community Kitchens/ supply of essentials to the needy

A handicap senior citizen Pratibha Verma was in need of some eatables. She contacted Beat Constable Ct. Bijender, PS Greater Kailash and requested to provide some fruits and eatables and soon they were provided. The same incident was reported in the print media including Punjab Kesari newspaper.

Inspector Suman Kumar, Investigation, PS Sarita Vihar saw some people roaming around for food. He took the initiative and a community kitchen was started. Another community kitchen was started by Inspector. Sunil Mittal, SHO Najafgarh and the police staff of PS Najafgarh where food was distributed among 2000 people daily. In addition, about 1000 masks were stitched daily by the staff and distributed. A mention of the same can be found in several newspapers including the Hindu.

Medical Assistance:-

A senior citizen lonely lady, age about 70 years was suffering from kidney problem. Due to lockdown, no medical aid was available to her. The beat officer Ct. Kapil Kumar learnt and arranged a doctor and saved her life. Punjab Kesari covered this story.

A person resident of Bahraich, UP requested South Delhi Police to provide medicines for his grandfather who is suffering from a heart ailment as this medicine was available in the area of South Delhi. Sh. Parminder Singh, Addl. DCP/ South immediately responded and procured the medicines for one whole month. He also ensured supply of the medicine to Bahraich, UP. Dainik Jagran was one of the newspapers that gave coverage to the above incident.

ASI (Exe.) Narender Rana did exemplary work in handling all the COVID-19 positive police personnel at the time of hospitalization.

Curfew Passes to the needy/ Reuniting families

An old lady, age 90 years was residing alone in the Paharganj area and her son with family was residing in Indore, Madhya Pradesh. The senior citizen wanted to go to Indore. SI Lalit, IC/PP Sangatrashan took the initiative and arranged curfew/movement pass thus helping the mother and son united. The above mentioned incident was published in the Hindustan in the month of May.

An old lady was stuck at RK Puram, Delhi and her pregnant daughter-in-law was alone at Faridabad. Delivery was due and no female family member was available with her daughter-in-law. SHO took the initiative and sent a constable with the old lady to her house in Faridabad. This episode was printed in the Punjab Kesari newspaper in the month of May. The role of SHO/RK Puram was appreciated.

A resident of Jaunpur, UP tweeted the Commissioner of Police, Delhi requesting that his mother was stuck in Wazirabad, Delhi in lockdown, whereas he was stranded in Mumbai. He requested for help. Commissioner of Police, Delhi arranged movement pass for him. He came to Delhi and took his mother with him. The newspaper Amar Ujala newspaper highlighted this incident in the month of May.
