MEMBERSHIP OF THE INDIAN POLICE INSTITUTE

An Institution for Scientific Research and Evidence-Based Policing

Be part of the Police Reform Movement

The Indian Police Institute is a professional institution and a resource centre for research, capacity building and leadership development, dedicated to promote evidence-based policing and a culture of excellence within the rank and file. The Institute focuses on the all-round reform of the Indian police at different levels, through research and learning strategies that combines theory with practice. A vibrant platform for professional interaction to share ideas, experience and best practices, the Institute aims at equipping police officers with skills to cope with complex problems of a changing world and to develop the capacity for ethically informed leadership. IPI is in the process of setting up State Chapters of the Indian Police Institute.
