MESSAGE

I am pleased to learn that the Indian Police Foundation is publishing a Book of Remembrance to pay homage to Police/CAPF personnel, who laid down their lives while performing duties as frontline warriors during the COVID 19 pandemic.

I feel proud that these officers and personnel discharged their responsibilities with utmost dedication enabling the government to combat and mitigate the fallout of COVID 19 pandemic in the country.

It was yet another instance where the nation's police forces rose up to the occasion and fought back with bravery and alacrity that they are known for, though with an unusual enemy this time. I compliment all State Police/CAPF personnel for their exemplary devotion and commitment in the service of their countrymen.

The leadership provided by senior officers, in execution of multifarious tasks like implementing lockdown and travel restrictions, handling migrant labour issues, ensuring uninterrupted supply chain of essentials and lifesaving medicines, etc., is praiseworthy. Going beyond the call of duty, police forces also contributed immensely in augmenting health care delivery by setting up and effectively managing COVID care facilities.

I pay homage to all those police personnel who lost their lives in the line of duty, fighting the pandemic. The nation will always remain indebted to them. My thoughts and prayers also go out to their family members.

I appreciate the endeavour of the Indian Police Foundation and thank them for this initiative. This recognition is a dignified and befitting tribute to the Police/CAPF personnel, who sacrificed their lives for the Nation. It also expresses deep gratitude of our nation to them and will inspire future generations of police personnel to come.
